

Policy Number 6. Role in issues, events and campaigns associated with the Indian Sub-Continent.

There are several organisations which are playing a prominent role in the above area in UK and Europe. These include some member organisations.

In recognition of the fact that British and European Sikhs are affected by events on the Indian Subcontinent, the Supreme Sikh Council UK has established the Indian Subcontinent Affairs Committee. It was decided during the consultation phase of the Supreme Sikh Council UK that the Council would remain silent on the issue of Sikh homeland and this remains the case.

The extent of the Supreme Sikh Council UKs involvement will be guided by the following:

1. Supreme Sikh Council UK as the Lead:
 - a) The Supreme Sikh Council UK would only lead if no other Sikh organisation has a successful/effective track record in the particular topic area.
 - b) The Supreme Sikh Council UK would aim to involve all sections of the community
 - c) The Supreme Sikh Council UK has the resources to Lead
2. Supreme Sikh Council UK in Partnership:
 - a) The Supreme Sikh Council UK will partner up where it helps to unify the community and there is a synergistic outcome
3. Supreme Sikh Council UK as support:
 - a) The Supreme Sikh Council UK will support member organisations through distribution of publicity and information
 - b) The Supreme Sikh Council UK will support where existing organisations are actively delivering and there is no real added value from the Supreme Sikh Council UK leading or partnering.
4. The Supreme Sikh Council UK as an independent collective body:
 - a) The Supreme Sikh Council UK will take positions in its own right and publicise these
 - b) The Supreme Sikh Council UK will participate in media appearances as appropriate

All Member Organisations are to be encouraged to request the Supreme Sikh Council UK to be the lead organisation in matters of high and common interest to the Panth, whether these are National or International. If an event is agreed to be lead by the Supreme Sikh Council UK then the actual day-to-day planning and organisation of events shall be carried out by the most effective organisation. This will ensure the Supreme Sikh Council UK reputation and credibility is promoted in a positive and growing manner.
